OVERVIEW

The Van Isle Wave Program is a professional organization. As such, we expect parents to conduct themselves in a consistent manner with our values, beliefs and methodology.

The program recognizes that parents are an integral part of a player's support team. Thus, it is paramount that our parents observe and follow the guidelines below

The Code of Conduct aims to provide clear direction on the expectations, such as behavior, commitment, communication, which will be placed on parents within our organization.

PARENTS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Encourage your child to participate, have fun and work hard;
- Teach your child that “doing their best” is more important than winning;
- Be mindful and respectful when cheering/chanting at games. Be a fan, not a fanatic;
- Yelling and the use of inappropriate language toward players, coaches, officials, opponents or anyone involved in the soccer environment will not be tolerated;
- Parents are responsible to support coaching staff, as well as refrain from undermining their authority or criticizing in public;
- Criticism must be discussed with the appropriate personnel and settling when situations related directly to one's child(ren) arise.
- Gossiping to other parents in relation to Van Isle Wave Program will not be tolerated at anytime;
- Parents also represent the program, and are expected to conduct themselves in a respectful and courteous manner, following program’s rules, policies, and procedures.
- Parents who don’t follow those guidelines are subject to probation, which can lead to further disciplinary actions.
